

Job description for EATA delegate to EAP

The EATA delegate to EAP is the representative of Transactional Analysis in EAP (European Association for Psychotherapy)

- The EATA delegate to EAP has to be a TSTA Psychotherapy with at least 5 years of experience as a trainer
- She/he should be an EATA delegate but exceptions can be made
- She/he is elected by the EATA council anonymously for 1 year elect + 3 years, but can be re-elected and she/he can be proposed by the retiring delegate
- The Liaison Person is the Chair of PTSC
- The EATA delegate to EAP will attend the yearly EATA council meeting in July, and attend the PTSC meetings and give her report.
- She/he will send a regular report for the PTSC meeting in March and June to the Chair of PTSC
- As the EATA delegate to EAP, will need to be present and active at EAP meetings 3 times a year in order to give Transactional analysis its place
- She/he is a member of EWOC (European Wide Organisation Committee)
- She/he will inform EATA through regular reports of new decisions or evolutions in EAP
- If she/he as delegate is unable to attend meetings for certain reasons, she/he will propose another person to EATA executive who will be the deputy in all these cases.
- She/he will ask EATA to adapt its own regulations to EAP requisites, in order to receive EAP recognition, e.g. concerning recognition of TA training institutes for Psychotherapy which will award ECP
- She/he will represent EATA' opinion - after collecting opinions by internal mailing process with EATA through the liaison person concerning any important decisions like accepting a new modality of psychotherapy
- Travel and accommodation related to the role will be paid by EATA - alternatively also for the deputy